December Greetings Fiber Friends,

This publication is a little late. I always get behind in December. We've been busy helping get those handmade gifts done. Hope you're all enjoying this time of year and not stressing too much. I look forward to ending my day with some knitting or crochet so I can center myself after being pulled in many directions all day. Yes I am addicted to my yarn and my projects!

We have lots of fun yarns for those last minute gifts. There's still time to make fingerless mitts, hats, scarves, slippers, coffee cozies, headbands, washcloths and potholders. It's always been a tradition in our family to handcraft at least some of our presents to each other. I'm sure I won't get them all done but I really enjoy the process.

What's new?

Many Bags & Baskets, Lots of Ruffle yarn, Smoshy from Dream in Color, Sundae, Links, Lacey and Blackstone Tweed from Berroco, many colors of DMC size 10 crochet thread, wool batting, 12"x12" sheets of wool felt in different colors, 4 new Hand Painted Araucania yarns, Ball winders, Swifts and Interchangeable needles from Denise, Clover, HiyaHiya, and Addi Clicks in Lace and original points.

Coming soon...

Arroyo DK from Malabrigo in 20 colors and 35 colors of Madelintosh DK
