Holiday Season's Greetings Fiber Friends,

As another year comes to an end I'm looking forward to 2020. Every new year I, like many of you, get a hopeful feeling of being a better person and discovering better ways to enjoy being alive. Of course in my case yarn has a very big part to play in these goals and my family and I will be doing our best to help you make your fiber dreams come true. Hand arts truly are part of the road to relaxation and the joy of creation. It's like having a super power.

Keeping a brick and mortar like ours alive is part of keeping a local sense of community that is physically tangible. Yarn is a real life experience that just isn't the same online. Being able to consult with a live person in real time has value. We would like to thank all of you for helping us remain vital. We wouldn't be here if not for you.

It's that time of the year...
